SAY BRITISH AND FRENCH DON'T SPEAK

BERLIN, Germany.—The following news items were given out for publication:

"Telegrams from Athens give reports of increasing friction between French and British officers on Gallipoli peninsula. It has been necessary to forbid intercourse between them.
The French accuse the British of having lost courage on account of their heavy losses. A Milan despatch says the British have purchased five Italian ships, filled them with ballast and sunk them off the coast of the peninsula to form a bridge for the landing of heavy artillery."
